Williamsport – Woodlands Bank and Fairfield Auto Group will be supporting local schools with the sponsorship of the Lycoming County Stock Market Challenge from the Pennsylvania Council on Financial Literacy (PennCFL). The sponsorship will include all the 3rd to 12th grade students for both the fall and spring games, for all divisions – elementary, middle and high schools. The Fall Game concluded in December. The Spring Game starts Feb. 10th 2020.

For the spring game, an extra special local competition will be held for high and middle school students. The schools invited to participate are Williamsport, South Williamsport, Muncy, Jersey, East Lycoming, Montgomery, Loyalsock, St. John Neumann Academy & other private schools. A celebration luncheon will be held at Pennsylvania College of Technology on May 26th to honor the schools, teachers, and their students. They will be honored by bank executives and PennCFL staff.

Woodlands Bank is a local community bank with their headquarters in Williamsport, PA. Woodlands has eight convenient locations and employs over 100 employees. They offer consumer and commercial banking, along with trust services in both Lycoming and Clinton Counties. Woodlands is committed to the communities they serve and is proud to support the development of financial literacy in local schools.

Fairfield Auto Group, headquartered out of Montoursville, with five great dealership locations carrying eight different vehicle brands. The Fairfield Auto Group staffs over 250 people and is proud to be a part of the Pennsylvania community and support the students in the region.

PennCFL's mission is to provide Pennsylvania's K-12 students with economic, personal finance, and entrepreneurship skills that elevate their standard of living, quality of life, and professional success. PennCFL sponsors financial games and programs, with the participation of over fourteen thousand students, in Pennsylvania. Also, they offer entrepreneurship conferences and competitions with partnering colleges and universities.
